

you would tell me what time you called for this boy to take the clothes?

A. I did not call him specially for that. He came up and I concluded they needed to be overhauled, to send them with him.

Q. He came up with the new suit?

A. Yes.

Q. What time was that?

A. I think between eight and nine.

Q. In the evening?

A. Yes. I know it was dark.

Q. Dark when he took the clothes?

A. Yes.

Q. What time did you order the suit?

A. In the afternoon.

Q. What time?

A. I could not tell you. I telephoned, asking for Mr. Lyons because he does my work personally.

Q. Did you see Mr. Mills on Thursday evening?

A. No. You mean before I went to the church?

Q. No, whether you seen him at all?

A. The only time I saw him, the day, I think it was Friday. I would not be certain when he came up and said he wanted to see my sister and said Mrs. Mills was not home.

Q. That was Friday forenoon?

A. I haven't any recollection of the time he came up. I don't know what their conversation was.

Q. Did you hear it?

A. Not that I remember.

Q. How many times was he up to the house on Friday?
